Volunteer Support – Twin Cities

Organizational Profile

ORGANIZATION: Feed My Starving Children

MISSION:

Feeding God's children hungry in body and spirit.

With God's help, FMSC will reduce the number of starving children throughout the world by helping to instill compassion in a generation that hears and responds to the cries of those in need. Donations fund the meal ingredients and volunteers package 100 percent of the food.

LOCATIONS:

Coon Rapids (401 93rd Ave. NW, 55433); Chanhassen (18732 Lake Dr. E., 55317); Eagan (990 Lone Oak Rd. #136, 55121)

CCA VOLUNTEER ACTIVITY:

Pack food bags in an assembly line – measure ingredients, then fill, weigh, seal and box the bags for shipment. Each volunteer shift is 2 hours from 9:30 – 11:30 a.m. CAA shifts are scheduled as follows: one in the spring at Coon Rapids, 2 in the summer at Chanhassen and one in the fall at Eagan.

ANNUAL CCA ESTIMATED VOLUNTEER HOURS:

Cargill has been a core supporter of FMSC for over 15 years and is a generous donor of ingredients used in the food packets.

CCA volunteers provided over 300 hours to FMSC in fiscal 2017.
